SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Host Family Dinner:

The traditional Host Family Dinner has been an important IH RTP's social activity since 1994. This event is a unique occasion for participants to enjoy an evening of Canadian hospitality and experience an enriching intercultural exchange.

Canadian families, friends of Equitas and living in the Montreal area, volunteer to invite IH RTP participants for dinner one evening. An activity always highly appreciated by all. Great fun assured!

International Evening:

The International Evening is a special dinner event with a catered international menu followed by performances by participants and staff. You are encouraged to bring with you musical instruments, traditional clothing, recorded music and any other symbolic objects representative of your country's traditions. Be prepared to entertain and be entertained!

Visit to the community of Kahnawake:

This year, Equitas has organized an activity with the Mohawk Nation in Kahnawake. This activity will feature a discussion on indigenous rights while showing how community tours and field visits can be used as techniques in human rights education. After a guided tour of the community, participants will have the opportunity to discuss with people from Kahnawake over lunch. Then, Kenneth Deer, a member of the Bear Clan from the Mohawk community of Kahnawake., will present on traditional and cultural symbols, decision-making processes of the Mohawk Nation as well as the international human rights standards and mechanisms regarding the rights of indigenous people. Participants will also attend a briefing session to prepare for the visit and a debriefing session afterwards to discuss the experience.

RAP sessions:

Participants will be invited to participate in regional or thematic meetings with Equitas staff to obtain more information about Equitas' activities and to network with other participants.
