SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Host Family Dinner:

The traditional Host Family Dinner has been an important IH RTP's social activity since 1994. This event is a unique occasion for participants to enjoy an evening of Canadian hospitality and experience an enriching intercultural exchange.

Canadian families, friends of Equitas living in the Montreal area and volunteer invite IH RTP participants for dinner one evening. An activity always highly appreciated by all. Great fun assured!

International Evening:

The International Evening is a special dinner event with a catered international menu followed by performances by participants and staff. You are encouraged to bring with you musical instruments, traditional clothing, recorded music and any other symbolic objects representative of your country's traditions. Be prepared to entertain and be entertained!

Thematic sessions:

Participants will be invited to participate in regional or thematic meetings with Equitas staff to obtain more information about Equitas' activities and to network with other participants.
