May 2017

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to everyone celebrating the 50th anniversary of Equitas – International Centre for Human Rights Education.

Since 1967, Equitas – International Centre for Human Rights Education has worked to advance equality, social justice and respect for human dignity both in Canada and abroad. Through its innovative programs, the centre provides frontline human rights defenders, educators, government officials, as well as children and youth, with the knowledge, skills and attitudes required to combat human rights abuse.

I would like to commend everyone associated with Equitas – International Centre for Human Rights Education, past and present, for their dedication to promoting human rights values. Your efforts are a source of inspiration for us all.

On behalf of the Government of Canada, I offer you my congratulations on achieving this milestone and my very best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,
