

Volunteers Needed for the 8th International Conference on Human Rights Education

Bridging our diversities

In our globalized world today, we are experiencing more and more conflict based on ethnic, religious, and socio-economic identities and differences.

Equitas-International Center for Human Rights Education organizes in Montreal a 3.5-day conference that will assemble 300 participants from all over the world for practical workshops and insightful sessions featuring the latest tools, knowledge and good practices in human rights education.
