“ There was a time in Africa when people said that human rights were not made for our continent, because they are imported concepts.

But when we talk to people about respect, freedom and human dignity, they understand that these rights should also apply here and for everyone.

CATHERINE MOTO-ZEH
Ending child marriage in Cameroon through education

“ We have to do better, not only for one another out of a basic sense of humanity, but we also have to do better because if we don't, nobody else will.

ALAA MURABIT
Igniting the Spark for Women's Leadership and Engagement in Libya and around the Globe

“ Children's rights affect everyone. I wanted to find ways of reinforcing the positive values and fundamental principles of human dignity that allow all youth to be the best they can be.
