

educate. empower. change.

Employment Opportunity

Title :	Education Specialist — ES2 (various regions and/or programs)
Organization :	Equitas – International Centre for Human Rights Education
Salary range :	$47.000 - $60.000
Location :	Montréal, Canada and remote work
Status :	Full time, 35 hours/week

Be a part of positive social change

Imagine working for an organization whose primary mission is to advance equality, social justice and respect for human dignity. Imagine that your work aligns with your personal values and that you participate every day in creating positive social change through transformative human rights education programs. Alongside 55 like-minded colleagues in Canada and partners around the world, you could help empower people to address inequality and discrimination, and work to build more inclusive and rights-respecting communities with Equitas.

The opportunity

Equitas is seeking a highly motivated Education Specialist with a passion for human rights, equality and inclusion and experience in the design, development and facilitation of educational materials. The Education Specialist will be responsible for developing, delivering and evaluating human rights education activities to diverse communities in Haiti, Senegal and the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region. The projects aim to empower community members, including marginalized groups, to promote human rights in their communities. Reporting to the Director of Education, the successful candidate must be a team player and will work closely with the Program Officer assigned to the project, as well as with other Education Specialists.

Tasks and responsibilities

- Conduct instructional design, development and production of training materials, primarily for text-based training resources but also for digital resources based on the text model. This includes materials for educational needs assessments, application forms, pre-assignment training programs, training guides, assessment instruments, all of which may be for multiple types of groups.
- Review and revise educational materials in consultation with program staff and partner organizations.
- Conduct and facilitate training sessions on specific projects. This includes working with Equitas partners in different regions to develop training content, facilitate trainings, orient the local facilitation team, lead and/or participate in debriefings during trainings, and ensure effective evaluation of results.
- Mentor and monitor partners on all aspects of educational design, implementation and evaluation of local mobilization efforts.
- Participate in other activities related to program delivery, including performing administrative tasks as needed.
- Prepare and conduct baseline studies and needs assessments.
- Design evaluation and monitoring processes and tools, analyze data and write reports.

educate. empower. change.

- Contribute to the implementation of Equitas' knowledge sharing strategy both internally and externally in collaboration with the Knowledge Manager.
- Facilitate information/education sessions for Equitas staff.
- Share good practices in education, particularly on Equitas' online spaces and social media, in order to increase understanding of human rights education and Equitas' programs.
- Contribute to the development of new programs and annual planning.
- Contribute to the development of funding proposals.
- Participate in meetings with key stakeholders, partners, and policy makers.
- Contribute, as assigned, to the continued growth and strengthening of Equitas and its programs.

About you

You are passionate about human rights and social justice. You are motivated by and strongly committed to Equitas' mission, vision and values. You are motivated to foster an inclusive work environment that reflects the diversity of the Equitas community. You have proven conceptual and analytical skills, and demonstrated skills in designing, implementing and evaluating training programs. You have demonstrated facilitation skills and the ability to work in a team environment.

What is essential for the role

- Eligibility to work in Canada.
- Ability to communicate orally, read and understand documents produced in French and/or English.
- Minimum of seven (5) years' experience working in learner-centered instructional design and training delivery.
- Formal education/instructional design/curriculum development training (or equivalent experience).
- Strong planning and organizational skills, including the ability to work on multiple projects simultaneously.
- Ability to work and communicate effectively in a cross-cultural environment.
- Ability to work in a team environment.
- Excellent knowledge of Microsoft Word for text design, InDesign, Photoshop, Survey Monkey for data collection and analysis, Excel and PowerPoint, Moodle.

What is an asset to the role

- Experience working in Haiti, Senegal or the MENA region
- Experience working on anti-racism, gender equality and/or other social justice issues impacting Canada.
- Experience in designing online training courses
- Commitment to human rights, human rights education and/or social justice issues
- Knowledge of SharePoint, Salesforce and other software is an asset
- Understanding and fluency in Haitian Creole or Arabic oral and written is an important asset educate. empower. change.

What we offer

- We offer the chance to be a part of and make up a diverse and engaged team that are all meaningfully contributing to positive social change in Canada and around the world in their own way.
- We value self-care, inclusion, and empathy towards all team members and place a strong emphasis on work-life balance. In addition to vacation time, we offer 2 weeks off over the winter holidays.
- We're all about learning and offer all employees the opportunity to participate in Learning Committees based on their interests and participate in a workplace culture that is constantly looking for ways to improve and innovate
- We have a centrally located office with a magnificent view of Mount Royal (although we currently work remotely).
- We believe in trust and openness and offer a flexible work environment.
- We believe in creating space for everyone to lead and offer opportunities within our governance structure to allow for individuals in all roles to take on opportunities for leadership.
- We offer a comprehensive benefits package that includes a competitive salary for the NGO sector, 3 weeks paid vacation (4 weeks after 3 years), paid personal days, medical, dental, and life insurance, a group RRSP, and much more!

Join us!

Given the nature of our work, Equitas strongly encourages applications from any candidates who have experienced marginalization, in particular, Black, Indigenous, and People of Color, LGBTQ21 people, and people living with disabilities. Candidates who wish to do so may self-identify in their application. Equitas offers a competitive salary and benefits package in the NGO sector.

At Equitas, we do not tolerate harassment, discrimination, violence, or abuse of any form. All employment offers are conditional on the signing of Equitas' Human Resources Policy, our Policy on Preventing Sexual Violence, Harassment and Discrimination, and satisfactory references.

Equitas thanks all applicants for their interest. However, only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

For further information about Equitas consult our website at www.equitas.org

How to apply?

Please send 1 attachment (cover letter and C.V.) with your name and Education Specialist - ES2 in the subject to:

Catalina Lomanto
rhequitas@equitas.org