

Elements of a Human Rights- Based Approach

equitas

educate. empower. change.

Who should participate?

How should they participate?

In what decisions?

PARTICIPATION AND INCLUSION

Active, meaningful participation of all, including marginalized people, minorities, children and youth.

Who is accountable? And to whom? How?

Who are the rights holders and duty bearers?

ACCOUNTABILITY AND TRANSPARENCY

Duty bearers are identified and are held accountable for the violation of human rights.

Who are the marginalized and vulnerable?

Who should be included?

How should they be included?

NON-DISCRIMINATION AND EQUALITY

The rights of all are addressed, including marginalized people, minorities, children and youth.

Who should become empowered? How?

EMPOWERMENT

Rights holders have the capacity and power to claim their rights and hold duty bearers accountable.

What human rights are involved?

What are the applicable human rights standards, instruments and mechanisms (national, regional, international)?

LINKS TO HUMAN RIGHTS

Human rights standards, including the legal frameworks are used as the foundation of our work.